CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER AVAILABLE IN THE FALL

A full-day child development center will be available this fall and will serve as a model program and laboratory setting for Shelton students enrolled in child development and early childhood education courses. Children of Shelton State students, faculty, and staff will have priority in registering for the center, and any remaining vacancies will be available to children from Tuscaloosa area.

The center, located in the Southside Church of the Nazarene on Greensboro Avenue, will serve 20 children ranging in ages from three to five years and will be open from 7:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. The fee for the full-day program will be $30 per child per week.

An evening child care center will also be open from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday evenings, to serve young children of students taking evening courses at Shelton State. Pre-school through elementary grade children are eligible to attend. The cost will be $2 per child per evening.

Dr. Allen Mallory will be director of the center. For more information, contact Dr. Mallory or Dean Howington at 759-1583.

PHYSICS COURSE TO BE OFFERED

General physics or general physics with calculus will be offered this fall at Shelton State for the first time. The calculus-based physics is designed for students in Shelton's pre-engineering curriculum.

The course will be taught by Walter Eugene Plott (B.S., M.S. degrees, University of Alabama) and will be housed in a new, fully-equiped physics laboratory at Shelton State Junior College.

LOUIS SKIPPER, WRITER IN RESIDENCE AT SHELTON STATE, IS AVAILABLE TO SPEAK TO ANY ENGLISH CLASSES ON LITERATURE DURING THE SUMMER QUARTER.

ACADEMIC PEP RALLY PLANNED

Educational Talent Search will sponsor an academic pep rally on Saturday, September 18, at Shelton State Junior College beginning at 9 a.m. with registration. Lunch will be served and really topnotch speakers from across the state will be featured. More information will come later, but be sure to mark your calendar now for the event.

DON'T FORGET TO COME BY AND REGISTER AT THE JOB PLACEMENT OFFICE

During these days of high unemployment in Tuscaloosa County, Shelton Job Placement office will work with you in trying to find employment while in school. So please come by my office and we'll fill out an application form.

INTERESTED IN COMPUTER SCIENCE?

This fall Shelton State Junior College will offer students a chance to take computer science classes during the day, with an afternoon lab available for BASIC and FORTRAN. Shelton's regular night classes in FORTRAN and COBOL will continue to be offered as well. Robin Gordo will be the instructor of the new courses.

THE CHILDREN WHO WERE FEATURED IN THE WINNIE - THE - POOH PRODUCTION AT SHELTON IN JUNE WILL BE PART OF GAYFER'S FALL FASHION SHOW THIS THURSDAY AT 7 PM AT THE BAMA THEATER. FREE TICKETS MAY BE PICKED UP IN THE JUNIOR DEPARTMENT AT GAYFER'S BEFORE THE SHOW OR MAY BE PURCHASED FOR $1 AT THE DOOR.

ORDER YOU TCP SEASON TICKETS NOW

The Tuscaloosa Community Players under the direction of Shelton's Paul Looney is beginning their 1982-83 annual season ticket drive. By purchasing season tickets, be assured of the same reserved seats in the area you specify for every show. In addition, renewal subscribers may retain the seats they held last season upon request.

Single ticket price for each TCP production is $5. Your purchase of a $15 season ticket results in a 25% savings for the season. Shelton students and ACTIVE members of the Shelton State Alumni Association may purchase season tickets for $10 or almost a 40% savings.

TCP now accepts VISA and MASTERCHARGE. If interested in a season membership, contact Paul Looney or Arthur Howington.

The Tuscaloosa Community Players is sponsored in part by a grant from the Alabama State Council of the Arts and Humanities and the National Endowment for the Art and Shelton State Community College. Plays scheduled for the coming season include Neil Simon's "Sweet Charity," "Luann Hampton Laverty Oberlander," by Preston Jones, "Inherit the Wind," by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, and Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit."

WOMENS INTERCOLLEGIATE SOFTBALL PRACTICE TO BEGIN

Shelton State's women's inter-collegiate softball team will hold their first fall game on August 23 under the leadership of Steve King, coach, and Susan Graves, assistant coach. "I expect a marked improvement in this year's team," King said. "We expect to have the best infield in the state and probably the fastest outfield as well." First week stand outs include Melanie Smith (freshman from WEC), Monte Green (sophomore from Brookwood), and Ozella Leatherwood (freshman from Holt), according to King.

Five of the girls are in the South Regional Women's Softball Tournament from their summer league teams. These players include: Lori Westbrook,; Diana Parton; Rita Jo Johnson; Mary Anne Hannah; Melanie Smith.
